HELD UP AT POINT OF REVOLVER

Heber Hicks, of Cynthiana, Held Up and Relieved of $20 and a Watch By White Man and Negro.

Monday night, about 11 o'clock, Heber Hicks, son of Jacob Hicks, who is selling cultivators to the farmers throughout this county, was held up at the point of a revolver at the mouth of the alley on Oak street between High and Railroad streets, by a white man who Mr. Hicks said wore a mask, and a negro, and relieved of $20 in money and a watch.

Mr. Hicks was on his way to the Cloverport Hotel, after calling on a young lady in the southern part of the city, and as he came to the alley just above the home of Wm. Smart, the robbers stepped out and shoved the gun into Mr. Hicks' face and demanded his money. The white man gave the revolver to the negro and told him to keep it on Mr. Hicks, and then he proceeded to rifle the pockets of the young man who was too badly frightened to make an outcry.

Mr. Hicks did not report the hold-up until the next morning, and it is very doubtful if the robbers will be apprehended, as Mr. Hicks says he does not know the number of the watch.

James Sanders Hurt When Wagon Overturns.

He was removed to the home of Mr. West, nearby, where medical attention was given him. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock.

BAPTISTS ASK FOR NATIONAL DRY LAW

Want Better Protection For Speakers and Press, Also Want District of Columbia Arid.

The Southern Baptist Convention at its final session at Asheville, N. C., adopted resolutions asking for the passage of a national prohibition law; that the District of Columbia be made prohibition territory, and requiring better police protection for public speakers. In the course of the debate speakers denounced the bill pending in Congress to make the Postmaster General the "supreme censor of the denominational and secular press," by giving him authority to refuse the use of mails to publications attacking religions.

The prohibition resolution came up under the head of the report of the Committee on Prohibition and Social Reform, and its adoption put Southern Baptists on record as "unalterably opposed to the liquor traffic, gambling dens, dens of vice, child labor and the sweatshop."

Among other resolutions adopted was the thanking the local newspapers and other organizations which contributed to the success of the meeting. The next convention will meet in New Orleans.

NEW DEPOT FINISHED MR. BEHEN MOVES IN

The Freight Depot of the Henderson Route at This Place Finished. Built of Concrete Blocks.

The new freight depot of the Henderson Route in this city is finished and occupied by the genial agent, Hovious Behen. Mr. Behen is very proud of his new home. It is a handsome building, built out of concrete blocks furnished by L. Powers, of Hawesville. It is a neat, substantial building, fire and rat proof and is of the type that Mr. Hudson has had built at Glen Dean and Fordsville. These buildings will stand as a monument to Mr. Hudson for all time. They are quaint, neat and substantial and pleasing to the eye. Another beauty about these buildings is, that they are a home product, built by home people and out of home material. Mr. Hudson is a great stickler for home products and never uses any other kind when he can get them on his road.

Breaks Ankle When Horse Runs Away.

Irvington, June 3—Ether Hall of Webster, happened to quite a serious accident Friday afternoon while passing through here. A horse he and Frank Hendricks were driving became frightened at a man on a telephone pole and ran down Main street. Mr. Hall jumped from the buggy breaking his left ankle in two places and sustained severe bruises. The injured limb was treated by Drs. Moremen and Parks. He was moved to his home at Webster that evening. Mr. Hendricks was not injured.

A Mistake.

It has been circulated around that I, or some other person, had changed the deed to the house and lot that Samuel Taul, deceased, lived in, which is false. The parties that made the deed are all living and good citizens of Breckenridge. They are: E. B. Barbee and Bettie Barbee, Mandy Wilson and W. D. Wilson, J. O. Wilson, of Lexington. James Keenan wrote the deed, taking acknowledgement of same. If any one believes this talk ask James Keenan or E. C. Barbee and they will tell you that there never was but one deed made and that was to Samuel C. and Nat Taul. This deed is recorded in Deed Book No. 58, Page 406. Nat Taul.
